

Academy31™

TRAINING UP GODLY YOUNG WOMEN
OF CHARACTER AND COMPETENCE

Job Description- Social Studies Teacher

SUMMARY:

The Teacher will provide excellent, engaging instruction in assigned subject areas from a biblical perspective while personally investing in students' spiritual growth as a mentor.

EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor's degree in education or relevant content area (Master's degree preferred)
- ACSI Secondary Teacher certification (or eligible to pursue)
- 2+ years' experience in discipleship ministry
- 2+ years' experience as a middle/high school teacher (preferred)

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Thriving relationship with Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and deep knowledge of Scripture
- Joyous pursuit of growth in sanctification and active membership in a local, Bible-believing church
- Full agreement with and commitment to the school's statement of faith, covenants, and philosophy of biblical womanhood
- Consistent reputation of godly character and integrity
- Strong passion for Christian education and relational discipleship, especially with middle and high school girls
- Demonstrated gifting in the area of teaching
- Extensive knowledge of and contagious enthusiasm for history, civilization, government, culture, etc., and how to approach them from a biblical perspective
- Experience in curriculum development and creative lesson planning
- Ability to build trusting relationships with students and create fun/interactive learning environment
- Warm, friendly demeanor and relationally engaging personality

3504 Edwards Mill Rd.

Raleigh, NC 27612

919-977-8920

info@academy31.org

www.academy31.org

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Teaches classes where qualified and as needed
- Models school's philosophy of biblical womanhood as evidenced by the dual aims of godly character and competence
- Develops course curriculum and daily lesson plans in keeping with school's Targeted Learning Model
- Helps design and carry out honors track program for advanced students
- Promotes a thoroughly biblical worldview by consistently highlighting how the reality of the gospel and the truth of God's Word are revealed through each particular course of study
- Adapts teaching to varying needs and learning styles of individual students
- Provides encouragement and support for students' Personal Discipleship Plans
- Supervises students during various programs and events
- Assists with accreditation initiatives
- Receives and applies feedback from Head of School
- Carries out other duties as assigned by Head of School

HOURS AND COMPENSATION:

- Start Date: July 27th, 2026
- Regular Hours: Weekdays 7:00AM-4:00PM (Wednesdays until 5PM for weekly staff meeting)
- Additional Commitments: Cultivate! Retreat August 10th-14th, 2026 (all expenses paid); several evening and/or Saturday events throughout the year
- Time Off: School vacation days and holidays as listed
- Starting Salary: Commensurate with experience